Asako Sawamura of McGehee will lead the High School Christian Fellowship discussion on "Honesty: Cornerstone of Character". Paul Ozawa will be chairman.

YPCF will meet under leadership of Bean Takeda to talk over the subject "Me, Myself and I". Come with your friends at 7:30 tonight and join in the lively songfest preceding the discussion period.

HAPPINESS HOUR

"The Thrilling Defense of Paul Before King Agrippa" will be discussed at PSH 2 at 7:30 p.m. this Wednesday. You will receive inspiration and courage for those days when you hear about the experiences of this great apostle. Make it a "must" date on your calendar.

APPRECIATION

Yuki Nakamichi, our Nisei Division Treasurer relocated last Wednesday to Cincinnati. Her services are deeply appreciated and we pray God's blessing upon her work outside. We are very grateful to Yuki for her departure gift to the church.

To the Rohwer Boy Scouts led by Shozo Watanabe, our appreciation for their part in the Memorial Day Services held at the local cemetery.

Our thanks to:

Mrs. H. V. Porter of Washington D.C. for box of gifts.

First Christian Church of Fayetteville, Arkansas for box of Sunday School material.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Opening from tomorrow morning, 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.; Vacation Bible School will be held for two weeks, June 5th-17th, at PSH 2, 6, and 20. Singing, stories, Bible lessons, and hand craft will be taught. Miss Janet Smith of Dormett, who formerly worked with Long Beach Presbyterian group is coming to help. Also assisting will be two students from Ouachita College.

Thanks from Hospital

On behalf of the Hospital Staff, Mr. Wm. H. Robins, Hospital Administrator sends sincere thanks to the church for the pictures that were presented to the hospital.

Y. P. CONFERENCE

The following young people are leaving for a week from tomorrow morning to attend the Senior Young Peoples' Conference sponsored by the Presbyterians at Fern Cliff, Arkansas: Helene Baba, Kazuko Inouye, Grace Shiraishi, Hanae Kakehashi, Fujiko Kikuchi, and Yuri Nakamichi.

Personals

From Rohwer to points north, west, and south, Rev. Y. Oyama left last Friday to attend conferences and make pastoral calls.

Adj. and Mrs. Hirahara is leaving for Chicago, Idaho, and Denver to attend the Christian Leader's Conference and make calls enroute.

Jean Ziegler enrolled in the summer session at Phillips University, Enid, Oklahoma.

Frances Nakashima left last Wednesday for Chicago.

Saburo Chino went Chicago bound for work.

Miss Pearl Bristow of the Education Dept. was transferred to Tulalake Center recently.

Thank you Dorothy Kanegaye for the donation and she writes: "How are you all in Rohwer? I want to thank you for sending me the church bulletins. I've enjoyed receiving them and keeping up with the church news." She plans to attend summer school at the College of St. Catherine and then go home to Denver.

Yumi Sato pens from Maryland Park, Md.: "My grateful thanks for the church bulletins. They mean everything to me." She plans to visit the Kanoda family in Philadelphia.

Sumio Kotake pens from Tulalake: "Nearly everything is far from our reach such as high school, canteen, library, and hospital. One thing I am close to is the church and I am certainly happy about it. Please say hello to my Sunday School students and that I arrived here safely."

From Patti Okura of Goucher College, Baltimore, Md.: "Your weekly bulletins have been spirit lifting. It is good to read about one's many acquaintances who are serving the church and relocating. The cover work is delightful. Hello to my friends and continued success to the church."

Helen Toyama has been attending Beauty College in Denver and is preparing for State Board finals. She expressed gratitude for church bulletins and sends greetings to all.
